-Barnswallow Quilt Show: at Morden Access Event Center, May 3-5. Friday 10-8, Saturday 10-5, Sunday noon-5. Admission is $5.00. Come out and enjoy the artistry of Pearl Braun Dyck, Amanda Loewen and many other quilters!

-Creation Care Opportunity: The Discovery Nature Sanctuary is looking for volunteers to care for the pollinator garden at the Sanctuary. Volunteers would commit 1-2 hours per week, caring for a 10' x 10' plot, mid June through August. One day a week will be set aside for this work making it a social time to meet new people and engage in good conversations. Alternatively, volunteers can choose their own times. Please contact Paul Goossen at 204-362-2190 or email discoverynaturesanctuary@gmail.com

Weekly Feature: Praying for our sister churches

Pray for our congregations...

Seeds Church in Altona exists to make Jesus real by fostering relationships, taking time to listen, and moving with purpose. Seeds has a laid back and relational ethos in hopes of creating environments (small groups, worship) where people can connect to God, themselves and to others. Most recently they are most excited about an initiative that got its start within the Seeds community but has since morphed into its own community organization: The Community Exchange. Please pray for Seeds as they transition from the founding pastoral leadership of Darlene and Ted Enns-Dyck who will complete their 26 years of service to the congregation at the end of December 2024.
